Community

Last Week ~ March 14

Harold Enns spoke about the track meet. He gave tips and instructions, going over the important logistics. Harold said that this is the 48th annual track meet. It is always well-run and continues to serve the children of this community. Thank you Harold, for your chairmanship and hard work in getting this all together. Thank you also to the members who worked the events and the snack bar.

Auction News

Rod needs information on any “live” auction items by the afternoon of March 18th. Please get that information to him. Lloyd needs any information on a “certificate” item by this Thursday, March 21st. They are putting together the catalogs. Also, remember to spread the word around town about the auction. Place posters around our city and sell tickets or give tickets out as we are in need of buyers.

Upcoming Reedley Rotary Programs

This Week ~ March 21

Mike Franks will be presenting his son, Derek Franks, president of the Fresno Grizzlies baseball team. We will hear all about the team, players, schedule, plans, goals and more.

Next Week ~ March 28

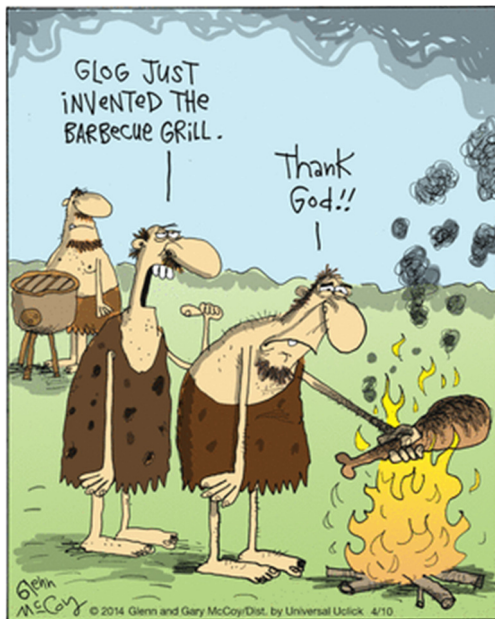

Chuck Bohn, auction chairman, will present final instructions and information and answer questions regarding the big auction. The auction depends on the participation of all of us. Committees and teams will meet in groups.
